

EXERCISE 33

Decide whether the following are run-ons (R) or comma splices (CS). Underline the part of the sentence where the error occurs.

1. Growing your own vegetables not only gives you personal satisfaction it also saves a lot of money. R
2. At the beginning of the firearms era, guns were used for hunting and for sport now they are used mainly to kill people. R
3. You will need a lot of light to take outdoor pictures, a good sunny day will do.
4. When jogging, pay attention to your body it will let you know when you have found a distance that will be comfortable.
5. Don't worry changing your own tire it can be done easily.
6. Just about every child has a favorite book, he likes having someone read it to him.
7. Don't just think about these things do them.
8. Customers can examine the products of glass containers however they can only hope for quality in the contents of metal cans.
9. Depression actually occurs, it is caused by severe problems and must be faced honestly.
10. This new diet has one of the easiest and simplest plans for an individual to follow, for example, there are no pills, drugs, or calories to count.
11. Slalom skiing is like riding a bike once a person knows how, he will never forget it.
12. The horse's face is beautiful and very sweet it is long and narrow with a square jaw.
13. Becoming healthy is not a difficult task it just takes time.

14. Melanie probably does not stay at home, in fact, she might do a lot of traveling for her company.
15. Being lonely is no fun at all, people should enjoy loving companionship throughout their lives.
16. No longer was America worried about Asia, it had a war of unbelievable proportions right here on its doorstep.
17. Credit cards are small and compact, they are trim and easy to hold.
18. Police cruise neighborhoods looking for speeders it is their job to ticket the violators.
19. Water is a very versatile thing, it revives, refreshes, and nourishes every living thing.
20. Government reports show that population growth has to be controlled, if not, it will harm the family, the government, and society.